Confirmation of the Loss of the Ship Ivanhoe, with all on board,

THE STREET The American mail steamship Baltic, Capt. Comstock arrived at this port last evening, from Liverpool, after passage of twelve days and eight hours.

She left Liverpool on Saturday the 22d ult. She dis charged her pilot at 3 20, P M.

The outward passage of the Baltic was made in 11 days and 17 hours, encountering strong easterly winds and a rough head sea. On the homeward trip she battled with the spring equinoctial for six days.

On the 22d of March, at 12 55 P. M., the Baltic passed a large steamer, supposed to be the Europa, from Boston. When in Ion. 46, lat. 43.30 she met several large icebergs. and 3.30 P. M., April 1, she passed the Hermann, thence for Southampton.

Our worst fears concerning the ship Ivanhoe have been confirmed by the Baltic. Captain Hoxie, of the packet ship Joseph Walker, who left New York for Liverpool in company with the unfortunate vessel, reports that on the 24th February, two days out, he saw the ship Ivanhoe ashore on the Round Shoal of Nantucket, with all sail set, and apparently with a list to the starboard. This, in connection with portions of cargo similar to that of the Ivanhoe, found floating in the neighborhood of the shoal, leaves very little doubt that the unfortunate ver sel thumped to pieces, and that all on board perished, as arrivals subsequently report experiencing a heavy gale on the 25th, off Nantucket, the day after she went on. We are indebted to Mr. Canning, the purser of the Baltic, and Messrs. Kingsley & Co., for late papers. The most important intelligence by the Baltic, is the in prevenent in the cotton market.

The curiosity of certain political circles in Paris has been attracted for the last day or two by a report (somewhat wrapt up in mystery, it is true.) of a new note addressed by the French government to the cabinet of Vienna. It bears date the 25d uit, and is described as marked by strong and energetic terms against the pretensions of Austria, which, it states, if accepted, would give to that power an overwhelming influence—both mo-

There has been a species of riot at St. Amand.
The department of the Nièvre has long been known for its socialism, and St. Amand does not dishonor in that respect the rest of the district. The socialist agents were resolved to profit by the occasion of a great assemblage of young men from the country to be ballotted for the conscription, and having plied the young conscripts with liquor, they made them parade the town with red flags, and other embians of the kind. The mayor, attended by a few gardes champètres, tried to put a stop to the procession, but failed in dozen of the most dangerous. These arrests roused the fury of the most dangerous. These arrests roused the they ground two of the forement who had hande on him. The mayor thought it necessary to barricade his house, which was threatened with destruction. He sent off to Cosne to the Sub-Prefect, explaining the critical situation be was in analyraying for assistance. The Sub-Prefect at once obeyed the summons, and arrived with an additional force of gendarmerie: but himself and his gendarmes were equally derganded, and beaten out of the town. Finding matters assuming so serious an additional force of gendarmerie usures of the Novesthe principal town of the department, urging the immediate presence of the Prefect with a reinforcement. The riot still continued when the latest accounts left, but the Prefect writes that he was then preparing to proceed to Saint-Amand with 60 mounted chasesurs and the four brigades of gendarmerie nearest at hand. That functionary states than his was then preparing to proceed to Saint-Amand with 60 mounted chasesurs and the four brigades of

The responsible editor of the Peuple, of Marseilles, M. E. Herre, was a few days ago condemned by the Court of Assizes of Aix, to fifteen days imprisonment, and 400f. fine, fig having published an article attacking the Constitution and the Legislative Assembly.

The sargy polemies of the Orieanist and legitimist papers, on the subject of fusion, and the decided respeciation on the part of the former party of a submission equally golling to the pride of the Orieans house, and persistons to its interests, have at length produced a resout whice is likely to be of considerable benefit to Louis Napoleon, in causing the legitimists to advocate the programment of his powers as the most effectual means of keeping the trivians princes out of France until they have done houses to the Duke of Bordeaux. Switzerland.

The official Gazette of the Swiss confederation contains a report from the Departments of Justice and Police in the several cantons, in reference to the German and other political fugitives who have so long found an asylum in the country, and have at last become the cause of a serious remon-strance from the German States to the Swiss central government. It appears that when they entered the Swiss territories, after the suppression of the insurrection in Baden, the fugitives were above 11.000 in number. They have gradually decreased in number by emigration to England and America so considerably, that at present the police returns only show the presence of 482 in the territory, distributed in the following manner:—In Zurich, 65; Berne, 97; Lucerne, 25; Uri, 1; Schwya, 6; Unterwalden, 1; Glarus, 3; Zug, 1; Freiburg, 24; Soleure, 20; St. 6all, 24; Appenzell, 9; the Grisons, 19; Aargan, 45; Thurgau, 25; Vand, 70; Valais, 10; Neuchatel, 23; Geneva, 15. Of this number 195 are natives of Baden, 47 of Rhenish Bavaria, 23 of Wurtemberg, 22 Poles, 73 Prusians, 23 Austrians, 24 Saxons, 16 Hossians, 2 Mecklenburgers, 17 Italians, and 31, Frenchmen. By a decree of the 16th of July, 1849, 13 were expelled the territory by name, and by another of the 19th of November, in the same year, 35 of the lenders were also ordered to quit the republic. Of these only two still remain in Switzerland—Barbo of Emmerdingen, and D'Ester of Cologne. The first concealed himself for a long time, and is now toe ill to be moved; the latter denies stoutly having taken any part in the Baden excesses; and it has been necessary to enter Suto a series of tedious legal inquiries on the subject, which are not yet concluded.

Electoral Hesse.

Advices from Cassel of the 18th instant, state that Messers. Henkelj and Hornstein have been sentenced by the court-martial to confinement in a fortress—M. Henkel for one year, and M. Hornstein for nine months. According to our most recent accounts from Cassel, three members of the ex-permanent committee of the Chambers, recently arrested, continue in durance, and are guarded with lesser or greater severity than his colleagues, MM. Henckel and Schwarzenberg, he having hitherto been prevented from communicating with his lawyer. He is not only implicated as a member of the committee, but is accused of having published a seditious work, and of having uttered language publicly, tending to excite rebellion and violence. The fourth member, M. Blairhoffer, is also arrested; the fifth is said to be in London. According to an article in a Berlin journal, M. Schwarzenberg is a half-pay officer in the British service. He is stated to have accompanied the corps of the late heroic Duke of Brunswick to England, to have served with that corps or the gallant old legion, in Spain and Portugal, where he was wounded. After the disbanding of the legion he is stated to have returned to Hesse, his native country, and has constantly taken part in the political events that have agitated that land at different periods. The yearnings of dorman unity and brotherhood evince themselves in a striking manner at Cassel. Sundown no sooner approaches than guards and patroles are obliged to be doubled, in order to protect the Austrian troops in garrison from coming to open war and deadly feud with their Prussian wol Hessian comrades.

Our Vienna correspondence is of the 13th uit. It was stated that Prince Schwarzenberg would leave that city for Dresden, at the end of the week. Obstacles have again been thrown in the way of a Council of the Empire. The designated members are opposed to the policy of the cabinet. Prince Schwarzenberg, late governor of Lombardy, has been appointed to the government of Galicia, vice Count Kevenhuller. Count Gynlai will take Prince Schwarzenburg's place in Italy.

The Austrian cabinet has addressed an energetic note to the Forte, wherein the pacification of Bosnia and Hertzegovinia is urgently demanded, and also better frontier regulations. In the same note the project of making Scutari a free harbor, is alluded to, which, it is hinted, would be injurious to Trieste. Prince Schwarzenberg has answered the King of Wurtemburg's letter. He by no means opposes the King's views, but says the time has not yet come for carrying them out—that the German princes must first come to a full agreement on the subject.

Turkey.

The insurrection in Bosnia is still far from being extinct. The conquest of the city and citadel of Banjaluka has furnished the insurgents with a stronghold by which it is likely they will be able to support their plans. The Austrian Reichszeitung protests that the condition of the Bosnian loyalists and Christians is distressing in the extreme, and that "some power ought to take the part of these beautiful and wretched provinces of Southern Burope." According to the latest advices from Zara, of the 4th instant, the insurgents of the Kraina have combined with those of the Herzegovina. They have attacked the Senskies, who, being reinforced by the Turkish troops which Arad Pasha had brought up from Travnic, succeeded in defeating them.

The mail from Constantinople has brought important news from Bagdad. It is well known that the great Arab tribe of the Annexch migrate yearly, following the ourse of the Euphrates, from the neighborhood of Aleppo to that of Bagdad, where they arrive about Christmas, and sell camels and horses, and buy dates. It has long been the custom of the pashas of Bagdad to pay black mail to the powerful shelks of this tribe and the Shammar, when their vast encampments move down into the neighborhood of the old capital of the caliphs, in order to keep the roads open, and protect pligrims and travellers from the depredations of the Bedouins. It seems, however, that Abdi Pasha, who has recently succeeded to the pashalik, refused the usual purses of tomauns demanded of him by the Annezeh shelks. Thereupon a cloud of mounted Bedouins, with their spears, were seen in the horizon on the right bank of the Tigris. The fellahs fled, whooping, with their flocks, towards the city walls, while their women raised the shrill alarm of their thrilling "Lud-ul-lu." Abdi Pasha marched out with his troops to meet the enemy but, although they had camon with them, they could not stand the charge of the Annezeh, and they were beaten back into viagiad, after suffering considerable loss, and leaving one gun

Emir Bechir, the old Frince of Mount Lebanus, has just died at Constantinopic, aged 94. The Porte has declared the island of Samos in a state of siege, because the Samians refuse absolutely to accept as their governor. M. The insurgent Samians have sent a second deputation to inquire what had become of the first they had sent to Constantinopie, but on hearing they were safe in the state prisons, they thought they could not do better than hurry back to their island, where an immense force of troops had been sent to quell the revolt. The Porte has attempted to interfere with the organization of the Greek clergy, and to force the bishops under Turkish jurisdiction to submit to fixed salaries. The measure is in itself a good one, but the clergy seeing with terror the Turkish government beginning to medile with their affairs, refused, and Russia intervened, signifying to the Turks that she would submit to no interference with the Church. A furious skirmish took place in Rome, a few days back, between the native troops and a body of French soldiers, occasioned by the latter having quizzed the former about their habiliments. In this, as well as in similar skirmishes, the inferiority of the French, in hand to hand combat, is as evident as their superiority in discipline and military tactics.

[Roman Correspondence of the London News.]

A subject which has taken as much discussion as any since the restoration of the Papal government, has just been arranged through the medium of Mr. Cass, the United States Charge d'Affairs. I allude to the conies of Diedati's Bible which were printed here in Italian for the British and Foreign Bible Society, under the republican government, (such things being then practicable.) and subsequently deposited for safe keeping at the American Consulate. The Papal government demanded the confiscation of the Bibles then printed and publishing, being expressly contrary to the laws of the country, to which it might have been replied that they were printed when a form of government existed which recognized no such law; but as the republican government at Rome was never acknowledged by the United States, Mr. Cass, of course, could not put forward such an objection. All ha has been able to obtain is, that the Papal government should get possession of the Bibles, not as a confiscation, but as a commercial transaction, a sale, in fact, the books being taken by his Heliness at a valuation; consequently, on the 25th of last month, three thousand six handred and forty-two Protestant Bibles were given up to the Papal authorities, who conveyed them forthwith to the Quirinal palact, where it is to be carnestly hoped Ple Nino and his advisers will take the carliest opportunity of reading them attentively through.

Monetary and Commercial Review.

[From the European Times, March 22.]

Since our last, important arrivals of produce have taken place from all quarters, and there is more confidence exhibited by dealers generally. Prices have ceased to decline, but home purchasers continue somewhat cautious, and no material change has, therefore, taken place in the foreign and colonial market. Upon business transactions of all kinds, the uncertain state of the ministry has exercised throughout the week considerable influence; it is felt in all quarters that, were the government measures once satisfactorily adjusted, trade would become brisker than for a long period past. In the cotton market, it was at one time supposed the Baltie's news would depreciate prices, but the result showed a contrary tendency, and the trade has been daily reported firm, at improving rates. In the sugar market, a reduction has been submitted to, without exciting transactions to any remarkable extent, and those chiefly for shipping and refining purposes. Prices for provisions are lower; breadstuffs are in better demand; the Manchester market is steady; and there is a good home and export demand for cottons and woollens. Spinners have gained fully 'id. per ib, in the value of warps; there is some increase in continental orders; and, judging by the overland advices from India and China, more business is looked for in the East. Weel is still held with firmness, although not much doing; sik sells rather more freely, but not at an advance. In the iron trade an absence of all speculation prevails; some works are plentifully provided with orders, while others have scarcely half employment, and complaints are rife that business is being transacted without remaneration. The meetings of mining companies have of late been both numerous and important; and, in nearly every instance, dividends have been declared amply compensating the adventurers. In English railway shares the recent speculations have produced a corresponding reaction. At the close of last works hav Monetary and Commercial Review.

ligence received from Liverpool on Monday. New Orleans tres ordinaire sells at 100f.

In the provision markets, a fair trade has been done in American produce. Western bacon has sold freely at 43s, on the spot, and a small parcel of Eastern reached 44s. Fine cheese is still scarce, but rates have undergone little variation. A large business has been done in the finer qualities of beef, nearly 1,500 tierces being disposed of at full rates; pork also comman is a free sale, several parcels of old being sold at 50s, and a few lots of new Eastern realized 63s, per bbl.

Our foregoing remarks regarding the state of trade in Manchester are abundantly corroborated by some of the most intell gent merchants. Some sorts of articles for printing are very much in demand, and prove difficult to procure with sufficient facility. This is especially the case with 36 and 40 inch wide goods in 66 and 72 reeds, while narrower and lower remain uncalled for. There is considerable firmness exhibited by manufacturers, and though no large individual transactions are entered inte, a fair number of purchases are being made for Germany and the Mediterranean.

The English Funds have been numsually dull and tore id throughout the work. The uncertainty of a final ettlement of affairs in Germany, the loss favorable state of foreign exchanges, and the sudden downward movements in the share market. have cach tended to cause a want of animation in the home mency market. On Saturday, the ronewed postponement of the budget had a most injurious effect upon business generally, and seriously checked transactions. On Monday the same depression was manifested, and on that day Consols closed at 963; for delivery and 964; for the secount. The unfunded securities were as little dealt in as the funded, but there was a smart disposition to operate in seme kinds of foreign. On Tuesday and Wednesday the English Funds remained without the slightest animation; the chief business was in Consols, and this mainly confined to the purchases of the government broker, after which prices slightly receded. On Thursday the market was steady, but the amount of business transacted was not very considerable. The closing quotation of Consols was 964; ½ for the account; for money the range has been 96½ to ½; Bank Stock has been done at 21½; Exchequer bills 52s. to 56s., and India Bonds 57s. to 61s. premium. To-day the market is steady at the prices of yesterday.

Contrary to expectations the market for deliars opened firmer, and considerable sales have been effected at former quotations; but the demand has slackened, and prices barely maintained. Bar silver has been largely dealt in at previous rates, and the market cleared. The overland mails of the 27th, will take out a very large amount of specie freight for the cast, the late purchases being chiefly for that quarter. Doubloons and pillar deliars stall in request, and prices well sustained. Money without change.

Markets.

Levishood. Corrow Market, March 21.—The information from America, received a fortnight ago, that the receipts of cotton at the ports was 94.000 bales more than the previous year, caused naturally enough a decline of 54d, per lb. On the contrary, the additional advices received a week ago, that the receipts had further risen to an excess of 113.000 bales brought about an advance of 54d. Of course this upward turn is not, strictly speaking, attributable to the increased receipts; but as those statements were accompanied by such positive and absolute advices that the whole crop, notwithstanding the large receipts, would not exceed the former short crop estimates, has given confidence, and an upward tendency to prices. One great reason of the steady demand from the trade is the absolute barrenness of their stocks. All yet remains for proof. The probability appears to be that the crop will prove a very moderate one, justifying the currency now in existence. It cannot, however, be deubted that any non-favoring circumstances would instantly tell upon our present raised scale of prices; nor is the period very remote when our market must be brought under the influence of the succeeding crop in the United States. Fair Uplands are placed 7½4. Mobile 7½4. Orleans 7½4. 8.649 American, 1,350 Surat, 30 Egyptian, and 80 Bahia for export. Sales for the week, 2500 bales.

naires, &c.

The walls of the Assembly Building ruins, extending from George street about one hundred and twenty-five feet, towards Chesnut street, tumbled down about 11 o'clock this morning, with an awful crash, alarming the whole neighborhood. A back wall, which had been left standing, in order to allow the insurance company to re-build as cheaply as possible, toppled over with a gentle westerly wind, and pushing out the front wall, razed it to the foundations. It was thought that some persons were crushed beneath the ruins, but soon after, the mar shal and his police went to work, and removed the rub-bish from the sidewalk, failing to discover any bodies. If any persons have perished, their remains will not be found any persons have perished, their remains will not be found until the street is cleared out also. There is considerable ill-feeling among the persons residing in the vicinity of the ruins against the officers of the insurance company, who, the day after the fire, stopped the police while engaged in demolishing the ruins. The remaining walls near Chesnut street, are the original height, no progress having been made in tearing them down, and for two weeks past, thousands have passed along the pavement beneath, though their insecure condition is the subject of remark to all who look at them.

MEDICAL.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION HAS, UNTIL WITHIN a few years, been generally considered incurable, although many medical men of the highest standing, among whom we might mention Laennee and his friend flayle—both distings ished authors, admit that this much dreaded disease may be cured, even in its advanced stages, when the lungs are not completely disorganized. The remedy which we now offer, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, not only emanates from a regular physician, but has been well tested in all complaints for which it is recommended. A physician is Maine says—I have recommended the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for diseases of the lungs, for two Maine says—I have recommended the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for diseases of the lungs, for two years are the same of Wild Cherry for diseases of the lungs, for two lacks where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure. From the Boston Daily Bee, March 28, 1849—Cure your cough. Are you afflicted with this distressing annovance, get rid of it. You have only to procure a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam to ensure this. It seldom falls, when taken in season, to effect a cure, and always relieves even the worst to the proprietor, citing cases of cures, where other means had falled. For sale, wholesale and retail, by the general agent, Sett W. Fowle, 128 Washington siteet, Boston, Massa, and by bits sub-agents throughout the country. For sale by William Burger, 31 Ceurtlandt street: by Russhon, Glarke & Co., 10 Astor and 273 Irving House, Broadway, New York and by deugsists generally everywhere.

TO FEMALES.—DR. LAFONT'S CELEBRATED FILLS.

—These Pills are safe in their effects, and are highly prized as a female medicine, to be used in cases of irregularies, obstructions, &c. Full and explicit directions inclosed. A NEW ERA IN MEDICINE,—THE GERMAN MEDICAL cal and Surgical Institute, No. 5 Chambers street, was founded for the express purpose of crushing and annihilating that monster of deceit and corruption, Quackery. Its founder, possessed with a firm and honest belief that an institution so founded for a purpose so humane would be looked on and sustained as a great public blessing, appeal to an enlightened public for their countenance, and that sustenance the undertaking deserves and demands. This Institute is under the immediate superintendence of Dr. J. P. Clement, assisted by two medical gentlemen of eminence, who have had under their charge some of the most extensive hospitals at Berlin and Vienna, and from their long and extensive practice and great knowledge of medical science, assure all persons placing themselves under their charge of a speedy eradication of their diseases. Old and obstimate cases, that have baffied the Wall of those claiming to belong to the medical faculty and appear as hopeless, will be treated on rational and scientine principles, receiving prompt and speedy relief. Office hours from 7. A. M., until 9, P. M. No. 5 Chambers street, near Chatham.
